

Given what's on TV these days - it looks an intentional plan to make Americans more stupid and more disinformed - why don't the FCC and Congress -instead of deregulating even further -take back the licenses of these media conglomerates and give the airways back to the public for a few years? Only local non - commercial TV and PBS for a few years please